

The only reason broadcasters are asking you to establish regulations preventing XM satellite radio from broadcasting local weather and traffic is that they are too lazy to compete in the open market. If local radio cannot compete it is time to pull their license and sell it to someone else. LET THE MARKET DETERMINE WHO DOES OR DOES NOT BROADCAST THIS Valuable information. Jerry Payne